Criminal Revision No. 693 of 2001
(Old No. 1109/1985)

Hon'ble Irshad Hussain, J.

None responds for the revisionist. Respondent no.1, the wife of the petitioner, had died.

The initial petition was for maintenance allowance, in which the cause of action on account of the death of the wife does not survive and hence the revision is dismissed as infructuous.

Consign.
